Kevin Daley asked if SHBC were planning to break away from SCC and if so what would happen to existing Council services and will there be full consultation. Duncan Clark replied that the response from Council was poor and Runnymede has found that one PoC is more efficient. David Whitcroft said that there was no political will to make the change. The possibility of having a board of Directors would be more cost effective. Tony Moore thought a vote had been taken against unitary authorities in favour of the status quo.

Beryl Hawkes spoke on behalf of Helping Hands - and asked for volunteers such as drivers, and telephone manning. The commitment would be one morning a month and there would be CRB checks. They have 12 volunteers at the moment. Expenses are paid at 40p per mile and 10p per telephone call. They currently cover three villages. Sue Cartwright endorsed Beryl's request as a good cause and suggested members speak to Beryl.

Sue Cartwright asked about the accidents recently in FG Road. John Castle had not been updated but commented that they only follow up ongoing problems.

James Fergus-Smith complained about the potholes. Chris Pitt said they were due to the snow. Mike Drew suggested contacting SCC and getting them logged. He also mentioned the removal of the yellow line by Hamesmoor Road School but there was a flashing 30 limit sign on the opposite side of the Road, and said there would be a police speed trap in Hamesmoor Road. Offenders would attend a safety lecture. Kevin Daley asked if there were penalties for potholes not being mended in time. Chris Pitt said managers can be fined. Mike Musgrove said that the potholes had been circled with paint. Mike Drew said they had been logged and will be done. Chris Pitt said they could do more if they had more votes. Kevin Daley reminded him that the Society was a non-political organisation.

John Cracknell commented that the Community Officer was spending more time in a car than walking about. Paul Deach said he has seen her out and about on foot. Cathie Whitcroft mentioned the next police surgery will be 3rd May 2010.

John Castell said the Chief Constable has been looking at the budget. They were hoping to recruit 200 constables in Surrey and Neighbourhood Support teams will have extra resources.

Brian Paine said not enough people are attending the police forums. He had also sent a message about salting the roads before the snow fall not afterwards. Mike Drew offered to take this up.
