

Mytchett, Frimley Green & Deepcut Society

Half yearly Meeting 15th October 2010

Doors Open: 7.30 pm - Start Time: 8.00pm.

Venue: St Andrew's Church Hall

Frimley Green

Featured Speaker

Andrew Robertshaw, Curator of the RLC Museum, Deepcut.

Andrew will be giving a presentation entitled:

'We Sustain' The Royal Logistic Corps and its predecessors in war and peace.

Andrew is an experienced battlefield tour guide and has taken numerous parties of soldiers and civilians to the D-Day beaches, the Western Front and British sites. He has regularly appeared in battlefield archaeology series such as 'Two Men in a Trench', the BBC series 'Ancestors', The Real Dads Army, a history of the Home Guard and he was a consultant for Time Team during the excavation of a Napoleonic Redoubt in Kent. His most recent project for television is a documentary series The Trench Detectives which has just been broadcast. The next documentary to be shown will be 'Blood and Bullets' a study of British military medical services since Agincourt.

This meeting will also present an opportunity to discuss the proposed changes in Surrey Heath as documented in the recently published "Core Strategy & Development Management Policies" Consultation document and in particular the additional 1,200 dwelling development in Deepcut.

Come to hear an interesting and informative speaker, to meet your local councillors, to join in an open forum and to socialise with friends and neighbours.

Non-Members - £3 at the door.

Chairman: Mr. Kevin Daley.
